

Spring 2024 Staying Connected Primary Progressive Aphasia (PPA) Class

- Introductory 8-week class for persons with PPA and a care partner
 - Focus on education, resources, and support
 - Classes facilitated by a Speech-Language Pathologist with support from graduate student(s)
-

Class Details:

Dates: Thursdays from February 22nd - April 25th, 2024

- No Meeting on March 14th or March 28th
- In-person meeting in Roseville on April 4

Time: 9:30-11:30am

Location: Virtual via Zoom

Tuition: $400 (Scholarships available)

Registration: Email contact@mncan.org or 612-524-8802

"Viewed in the most positive sense, the diagnosis of primary progressive aphasia does not mean the end of communication. It can be the first step to identifying ways to maintain communication abilities for as long as possible."

National Aphasia Association