

Winter 2025 Staying Connected Primary Progressive Aphasia (PPA) Class

- Introductory 8-week class for persons with PPA and a care partner; limited to first six participants to register
 - Focus on education, resources, and support
 - Class facilitated by a speech-language pathologist with support from a graduate student
-

Class Details:

Date: Fridays from February 7 through March 28, 2025

Time: 1:30 - 3:30pm

Location: Virtual meetings via Zoom

- One in-person meeting - date to be determined

Tuition: $400 (scholarships available)

Registration: Email contact@mncan.org or call 612-524-8802

"Viewed in the most positive sense, the diagnosis of primary progressive aphasia does not mean the end of communication. It can be the first step to identifying ways to maintain communication abilities for as long as possible."

National Aphasia Association